It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for a period of 60 months.

Alvin Wilkins was released from custody on October 30, 2015, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.

On September 21, 2016, the defendant was charged with Driving While Impaired in Wake County, North Carolina. The court was made aware of the charges and the recommendation was to allow the matters to resolve themselves in state court. The court concurred with the recommendation. The cases were subsequently dismissed on May 15, 2017.

That case has since been dismissed.

The defendant signed a Waiver of Hearing agreeing to the proposed modification of supervision.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that supervised release be modified as follows:

1. The defendant shall adhere to a curfew as directed by the probation officer for a period not to exceed 30 consecutive days. The defendant is restricted to residence during the curfew hours. The defendant shall submit to the following Location Monitoring: Radio Frequency monitoring and abide by all program requirements, instructions and procedures provided by the supervising officer.
2. The defendant shall obtain a substance abuse assessment from an appropriate mental health facility within thirty (30) days from the date of this judgment and complete any prescribed treatment program. The defendant must pay the assessment fee and any added treatment fees that may be charged by the facility.

Except as herein modified, the judgment shall remain in full force and effect.

Reviewed and approved,

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing
